- I'm happy I have my own place.
- I want to work or learn.
- I worry about living in certain parts of Bolton.
- I do not want to mix with any of my old friends that have a criminal life because I have worked so hard to free myself from it.

Plan presented at the beginning of Staying Close involvement: To help M understand how to regulate his emotions, help M into work/Education and settle into an Accommodation

16/04/2024
M and I, had a conversation about this topic as I was dropping you at home, you got very emotional and walked off into your home and locked yourself in a bathroom and was non responsive. The day after I saw you, we set out boundaries of trust and communication, our relationship got stronger from there and you changed for the better. It was important this disagreement happened., as it turned out to be the best learning experience.
