9 MONTH PROGRESS

The No Comment Pathway [NCP] is a collaborative initiative between Merseyside Police, Merseyside Youth Justice Services [YJS] and Merseyside Violence Reduction Partnership. Starting on 3rd June 2024 to afford children another opportunity to be diverted from Court and engage with YJS across Merseyside.

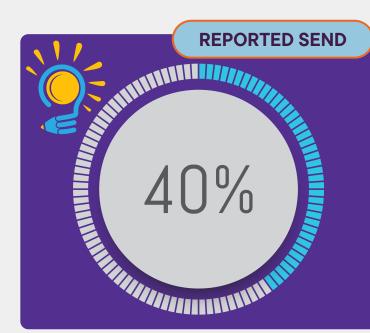

We continue to monitor 3 monthly, ensuring effective oversight and management of the pilot. At In March 25 a further offence of Obstruct/resist a Constable in execution of duty has been added to the offence list.

OFFENCE TYPE

Main offense was POCD B. This has remained constant since the start of the NCP

70%

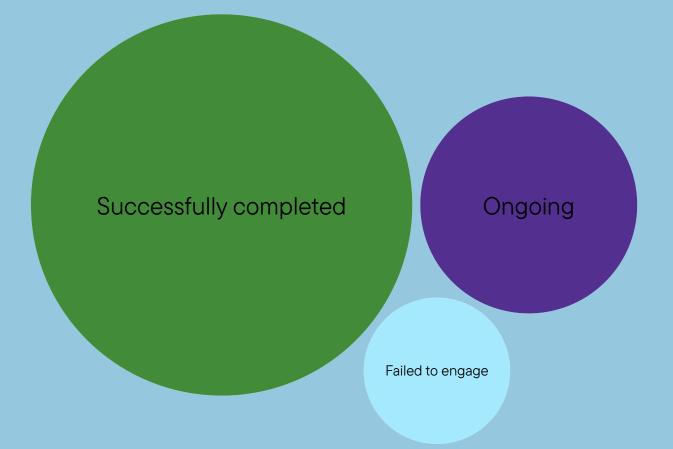

This is reported SEND - meaning this information would already be recorded on Police systems or the child has reported this to Police.

Further analysis will be undertaken on SEND and the NCP as we progress.

9 MONTH REVIEW

The below shows the majority of children accepted onto the NCP have successfully completed their OOCD intervention.

The estimated cost of a "court event" for a child is £1608*, the 68% of children who have successfully completed their intervention is potential saving of £24,120 within 9 months.
