WHAT WE DID

- Ran a Hack (workshop) to start planning a shared Threshold Tool & Document
- Made sure these work for children, families and practitioners
- Drew on insight from 998 survey participants
- Co-created design for part 2!

WHO TOOK PART

- 34 participants
- From 9 local authority areas & multiple partner agencies
- These included big bosses, parents, teenagers, children and even dogs in the background!

WHAT WE DISCOVERED

- Children & young people need a trusted person and after care
- Parents & carers want clear info and less judgment and stigma
- Professionals want consistency, visual tools & family-first culture
- Key themes such as plain language, creative access & inclusive leeadership

WHAT'S NEXT?

- Hack 2 which will turn these ideas into real prototypes
- Test these prototypes on 4 design pillars:
  1. The Trusted Adult Model
  2. The Threshold Compass Tool
  3. The Language Charter
  4. The Culture Shift Programme

WHAT WE DID

- Ran a Hack (workshop) to explore the themes of Part 1
- Translated lived experience & professional insight into practical tips
- Co-created a toolkit that is accessible, creative & family-first
- Started to shift culture, build co-ownership and grow trust

WHAT WE EXPLORED

- Visual, values-led tools that make sure families are kept in the loop. These include: apps & QR codes.
- Plain language that is inclusive, equal and fair.
- Ways to centre culture around families & trust - making sure everyone can shape the convo

WHAT'S NEXT?

- Co-design new tools such as plain-language guides, feedback loop templates & curiosity charter
- Embed changes in training
- Create the Trusted Adult Pathway
- More testing to make sure we're always family-first

And so much more!
